

100 Ormond Street, S. Thorold, ON L2V 1Y5

We claim that the HDPE sheet products listed below are safe for food contact when used as a “non-contact” as defined by the FDA Food Code 2009: Chapter 1 – Purpose & Definitions. We also claim that the HDPE sheet products listed are safe for food contact as defined by CFIA for construction materials, non-contact only.

iPoly Product	FDA CFR CFIA Provisions for components
All Sani-Armor Premium HDPE sheet products in all colors. Note: A number of Sani-Armor HDPE sheet product qualify for FDA Contact. Please refer to FDA Contact document for listing.	21 CFR 177.1520[(c), (c)3.1a, (c)2.2] 21 CFR 176.170(c) 21 CFR 178.3297(e) 21 CFR 184.1409 21 CFR 181.28 21 178.2010(b) CFIA approved for Construction materials - non-contact

1. All components used in the manufacture of the above iPoly products, conform to the USA Food and Drug Administration (FDA) specifications contained in FDA 21 CFR (Code of Federal Regulations) sections stated above. Furthermore, all ingredients were used within manufacturer recommended levels for safety regarding food contact as set out by FDA provisions.
2. All components used in the manufacture of the above iPoly products, meet the requirements as set out by the Canadian Food Inspection Agency (CFIA).

IMPORTANT NOTE: This certification is for NON-CONTACT FOOD APPLICATIONS ONLY

iPoly cannot be held responsible for any modifications of the above referenced product by any processes, inadequate storage or use. It is the responsibility of the customer to ensure that any articles produced from this product are suitable for their intended applications. This letter is made to the best of our knowledge, based on manufacturer feedback.

If you have any further inquiries, please do not hesitate to contact us.

John Hyne
 Manager & Quality Assurance

Prepared by:
 Dylan Cooke
 Technical Services
 labtech@ipoly.com